GENERAL ORDERS FOR N. G. U. RANGE PRACTICE

Major Williams Issues Orders to Govern Target Shooting at Bonneville.

Major W. G. Williams, supervisor of target practice of the National Guard of Utah, has issued the following order pertaining to the use of the new rifle range at Bonneville. Major Williams goes on the range each Sunday and personally sees that all rules are carried out. Sunday the signal corps of the N. G. U., will install telephones on the The order issued follows:

range. The order issued follows:

The targets at this range will be assigned as follows: Company H, target No. 1; company C, target No. 2: Signal orns target No. 3; First infantry head-quarters and staff target No. 4: Companies will use only the target assigned to them. Members of any command without a commissioned officer of the company to which they belong will be assigned to practice by the range officer. All targets will be put up and taken down under the supervision of the noncommissioned range officer in charge of the butts. The non-commissioned range of-deer will see that all shots are accurately marked.

No man will be allowed to enter or leave the target butts during firing. All firing must be stopped should it be necessary to enter or leave the butts. Under no circumstances will there be any firing at more than one distance or range it any one time. All practice will be under the general supervision of the many officer. Company officers are warmed not to let any man load his plees until he has taken his position to lite. All targets and equipment will be arefully taken down and locked up after the practice has ended. All scores must be certified by the range officer. By order if W. G. Williams, major First infantry and supervisor of target practice.

Lieutenant W. H. Barrett, First In-Lieutenant W. H. Barrett, First In-fantry, has been detailed as range of-fier, and Sergeant Lundquist as non-commissioned range officer.
